A hearty congratulations to you, [redacted] and all your MAG colleagues for your successful first running of the Secretary of the Year Awards. I know how much work you all put into the process, and it all paid off with the very impressive award ceremony today.

I've heard lots of positive comments and am sure the program will grow and thrive. You should all really be proud to have started such an important Agency tradition.

Good luck and keep up the good work.
